

The Western Virginia Land Trust presents

"RWANDA: COFFEE FARMING HEALS"

Program, auction and potluck dinner
Sunday, March 11, 5-7 pm
Unitarian Universalist Church of Roanoke
Corner of Grandin Ave. and Brandon Rd.

In 1994, the tiny central African country of Rwanda was wracked by a devastating genocide. Learn how sustainable coffee farming has helped to reunite the country and provide gainful employment for the people of Rwanda. Presented by Coffee Ambassador Jonna McGraw.

This event is free and open to the public. Please bring a covered dish. The land trust will also auction off a guided canoe fishing trip with noted local author Bruce Ingram. For more information, call (540) 985-0000 or e-mail dperry@westernvirginialandtrust.org.
